

Master of Arts in Sustainable Communities 2008 Summer Institute

Globalization & Its Implications for Good & Sustainable Communities

MLS 599 -Section 801 - Class Number 1989
Available for 1 unit of graduate credit or as a non-credit workshop

Friday, June 20 - 6:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
Saturday, June 21 - 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Sunday, June 22 - 9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

This weekend course will examine globalization and its implications. Topics include outsourcing, immigration, free trade, HIV/AIDS, cultural preservation, industrial agriculture, grass roots resistance, and sustainability. Dr. Miguel Vasquez, applied anthropologist on the NAU faculty, has worked on issues related to globalization in the U.S., Latin America, and Southwest for the past 30 years.

Available for 1 unit of graduate credit as MLS 599 - Section 801 - Class Number 1989 or as a non-credit workshop.

To enroll for course credit, register on-line at www.nau.edu/louie.

To enroll for the workshop, please complete the registration form and return with payment of $125.00 to NAU, Master of Arts in Sustainable Communities, P.O. Box 6031, Flagstaff, AZ 86011.

Name: _____ Organization: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ E-Mail: _____

For more information contact Holly Hulen at (928) 523-9359 or holly.hulen@nau.edu
www.cal.nau.edu/mls

NORTHERN ARIZONA UNIVERSITY