

Saturday Seminar

November 14, 2009

10:30 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

at NAU

3rd Floor of Riles Building
(#15)

- Coffee, tea, and baked goods provided
- Professional Development seat hour certificates
- Come to both sessions, or just one!

RSVP at nau.edu/nawp or e-mail Alison.Johnson@nau.edu

Academic Publishing for Teachers

This session will focus on helpful hints you can use to put together a book proposal for an academic publishing house. Issues related to publishing for journals in the field and for being accepted to conferences will also be discussed. Samples will be shared.

Time: 10:45-11:45

Presenter: Dr. Jean Boreen, Associate Dean, College of Arts and Letters

Using Oral History in the Classroom

This session will provide an overview of the oral history process and show you how to use oral history in your classroom, no matter what grade level or discipline you teach. Lesson plans, materials, and available resources will be shared, as well as information on a new Oral History Exhibit.

Time: 12:00-1:00

Presenter: Alison Johnson,
Co-Director of NAWP

